

Privacy Policy

Effective as of March 1, 2026.

Last updated February 15, 2026.

California Notice at Collection: See the California Privacy Rights Notice below for important information about your rights under applicable California law.

This Privacy Policy describes how Calyxo, Inc. ("Calyxo," "we", "us" or "our") processes personal information that we collect through our digital or online properties or services that link to this Privacy Policy (collectively, the "Services"). Calyxo may provide additional or supplemental privacy policies to individuals for specific digital or online properties, products or services that we offer at the time we collect personal information; for example, in the context of conducting clinical trials, we provide disclosures related to our personal information practices in conducting such trials, and for our users of our general corporate website, calyxoinc.com, we provide a separate privacy policy.

Our personal information practices may vary depending on the nature of the Services you use and our relationship to you. Please consider the context in which we interact with you when reading this Privacy Policy.

Personal Information We Collect

Information you provide to us or that we generate about you. Personal information you may provide to us through the Services or otherwise or that we may generate about you includes:

- Contact information, such as your first and last name, salutation (e.g., Mr., Mrs., Ms.), email address, mailing addresses, and phone number.
- Demographic data, such as your city, state, country of residence, and postal code.
- Communications data based on our exchanges with you, including when you contact us through the Services, social media, or otherwise.
- Professional data, such as name, professional title and employer name, national provider identification number (NPI) or similar, work contact information, signature, CV information, professional licensure information, travel information, picture/video/audio material, and education and professional experience.
- Marketing data, such as your preferences for receiving our marketing communications and details about your engagement with them.
- Other data not specifically listed here, which we will use as described in this Privacy Policy or as otherwise disclosed at the time of collection.

Through our digital or online properties, unless we specifically direct you otherwise, we ask that you not provide us with any health-related information (including any information regarding your past, present or future physical or mental health status).

Third-party sources. We may combine personal information we receive from you with personal information falling within one of the categories identified above that we obtain from other sources, such as:

- Public sources, such as government agencies, public records, social media platforms, and other publicly available sources.
- Data providers, such as information services and data licensors.
- Partners, such as commercialization partners and medical institutions.
- Service providers that provide services on our behalf or help us operate the Services or our business.
- Business transaction partners. We may receive personal information in connection with an actual or prospective business transaction. For example, we may receive your personal information from an entity we acquire or are acquired by, a successor, or assignee or any party involved in a business transaction such as a merger, acquisition, sale of assets, or similar transaction, and/or in the context of an insolvency, bankruptcy, or receivership.

Automatic data collection. We, our service providers, and our business partners may automatically log information about you, your computer or mobile device, and your interaction over time with the Services, our communications and other online services, such as:

- Device data, such as your computer or mobile device's operating system type and version, manufacturer and model, browser type, screen resolution, RAM and disk size, CPU usage, device type (e.g., phone, tablet), IP address, unique identifiers (including identifiers used for advertising purposes), language settings, mobile device carrier, radio/network information (e.g., Wi-Fi, LTE, 3G), and general location information such as city, state or geographic area.
- Online activity data, such as pages or screens you viewed, how long you spent on a page or screen, the website you visited before browsing to the Services, navigation paths between pages or screens, information about your activity on a page or screen, access times and duration of access, and whether you have opened our emails or clicked links within them.
- Communication interaction data such as your interactions with our email, text or other communications (e.g., whether you open and/or forward emails) – we may do this through use of pixel tags (which are also known as clear GIFs), which may be embedded invisibly in our emails.

For more information concerning our automatic collection of data, please see the Tracking and Other Technologies section below.

Tracking and Other Technologies

Cookies and similar technologies. Some of our automatic data collection is facilitated by cookies and similar technologies described below. We will also store a record of your preferences in respect of the use of these technologies in connection with the Services.

- Cookies, which are small text files that websites store on user devices and that allow web servers to record users' web browsing activities and remember their submissions, preferences, credentials, and login status as they navigate a site. Cookies used on our sites include both "session cookies" that are deleted when a web browser session ends, "persistent cookies" that remain longer, "first party" cookies that we place and "third party" cookies that our service providers and other third parties place.
- Local storage technologies, like HTML5, that provide cookie-equivalent functionality but can store larger amounts of data on your device outside of your browser in connection with specific applications.
- Web beacons, also known as pixel tags or clear GIFs, which are used to demonstrate that a webpage or email was accessed or opened, or that certain content was viewed, clicked or forwarded.

For information concerning your choices with respect to the use of tracking technologies, see the Your Choices section.

How We Use Your Personal Information

We may use your personal information for the following purposes or as otherwise described at the time of collection:

Service delivery and operations. We may use your personal information to:

- provide the Services and operate our business;
- enable security features of the Services;
- communicate with you about the Services, including by sending Service-related announcements, updates, security alerts, and support and administrative messages; and
- provide support for the Services, and respond to your requests, questions and feedback.

Service personalization, which may include using your personal information to:

- understand your needs and interests;
- personalize your experience with the Services and our Service-related communications; and
- remember your selections and preferences as you navigate webpages.

Service improvement, research and development, and analytics. We may use your personal information to analyze your usage of the Services, improve the Services, improve the rest of our business, help us understand user activity on the Services, including which pages are most and least visited and how visitors move around the Services, as well as user interactions with our emails, for research and development purposes, including to develop, analyze and improve our products and services, and to develop new products and services. For example, we use Google Analytics for this purpose. You can learn more about Google Analytics and how to prevent the use of Google Analytics relating to your use of our sites here: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en>.

Marketing. We, our service providers may collect and use your personal information for marketing purposes, as follows:

- Direct marketing. We may send you direct marketing communications and may personalize these messages based on your needs and interests. You may opt-out of our marketing communications as described in the Opt Out of E-mail Marketing Communications section below.

Compliance and protection. We may use your personal information to:

- comply with applicable laws, lawful requests, and legal process, such as to respond to subpoenas, investigations or requests from government authorities;
- protect our, your or others' rights, privacy, safety or property (including by making and defending legal claims);
- audit our internal processes for compliance with legal and contractual requirements or our internal policies;
- enforce the terms and conditions that govern the Services; and
- prevent, identify, investigate and deter fraudulent, harmful, unauthorized, unethical or illegal activity, including cyberattacks and identity theft.

With your consent. In some cases, we may specifically ask for your consent to collect, use, or share your personal information for further purposes, if those purposes are not compatible with the initial purpose for which that personal information was collected.

Cookies and similar technologies. In addition to the other uses included in this section, we may use the Cookies and similar technologies described above for the following purposes:

- Technical operation. To allow the technical operation of the Service, such as remembering selections as you navigate the Services and remembering whether you are logged in.
- Functionality. To enhance the performance and functionality of our services.
- Analytics. To help us understand user activity on the Service, including the volume and demographics of users, which pages are most and least visited and how users move around the Service or interact with our emails. For example, we use Google Analytics for this purpose. You can learn more about Google Analytics and how to prevent the use of Google Analytics relating to your use of the Services here: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

Data sharing in the context of corporate transactions, we may share certain personal information in the context of actual or prospective corporate transactions – for more information, see How We Share Your Personal Information, below.

To create aggregated, de-identified and/or anonymized data. We may create aggregated, de-identified and/or anonymized data from your personal information and other individuals whose personal information we collect. We make personal information into de-identified and/or anonymized data by removing information that makes the data identifiable to you and we will not attempt to reidentify any such data except as otherwise permitted by applicable law. We may use this aggregated, de-identified and/or anonymized data and share it with third parties for our lawful business purposes, including to analyze and improve the Services and promote our business.

Further uses, in some cases, we may use your personal information for further uses, in which case we will ask for your consent to use of your personal information for those further purposes if they are not compatible with the initial purpose for which the information was collected.

Retention

We generally retain personal information to fulfill the purposes for which we collected it, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements, to establish or defend legal claims, and for fraud prevention purposes. To determine the appropriate retention period for your personal information, we may consider factors such as the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal information, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of your personal information, the purposes for which we process your personal information and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

When we no longer require the personal information we have collected about you, we may either delete it, anonymize it, or isolate it from further processing.

How We Share Your Personal Information

We may share your personal information with the following parties and as otherwise described in this Privacy Policy, in other applicable notices, or at the time of collection.

Affiliates. Our corporate parent, subsidiaries, and affiliates.

Service providers. Third parties that provide services on our behalf or help us operate the Services or our business (such as those involved in data hosting, information technology, customer support, patient support services, customer service-related services, order fulfillment email delivery, marketing, payment card issuance, consumer research and/or website analytics).

Third parties designated by you. We may share your personal information with third parties where you have instructed us or provided your consent to do so such as with caregivers and healthcare professionals.

Partners. Third parties with whom we partner, such as our commercialization partners (including collaboration partners as well as institutions, specialty pharmacies, and other organizations that support our patient support programs).

Professional advisors. Professional advisors, such as lawyers, auditors, bankers and insurers, where necessary in the course of the professional services that they render to us.

Authorities and others. Law enforcement, government authorities, and private parties, as we believe in good faith to be necessary or appropriate for the Compliance and Protection Purposes described above.

Business transferees. We may disclose personal information in the context of actual or prospective business transactions (e.g., investments in or financings of Calyxo, public stock offerings, or the sale, transfer or merger of all or part of our business, assets or shares), for example, we may need to share certain personal information with prospective counterparties and their advisers. We may also disclose your personal information to an acquirer, successor, or assignee of Calyxo as part of any merger, acquisition, sale of assets, or similar transaction, and/or in the event of an insolvency, bankruptcy, or receivership in which personal information is transferred to one or more third parties as one of our business assets.

Your Choices

In this section, we describe the rights and choices available to all users. Users who are located in California can find additional information about their rights below in the California Privacy Rights Notice.

Opt-out of email marketing communications. You may opt-out of marketing-related emails by following the opt-out or unsubscribe instructions at the bottom of the email, or by contacting us. Please note that if you choose to opt-out of marketing-related emails, you may continue to receive service-related and other non-marketing emails.

Cookies and other tracking technologies. Most browsers let you remove or reject cookies. To do this, follow the instructions in your browser settings. Many browsers accept cookies by default until you change your settings. Please note that if you set your browser to disable cookies, the Service may not work properly. For more information about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set on your browser and how to manage and delete them, visit <http://www.allaboutcookies.org>.

Blocking images/clear gifs. Most browsers and devices allow you to configure your device to prevent images from loading. To do this, follow the instructions in your particular browser or device settings.

Do Not Track. Some Internet browsers may be configured to send “Do Not Track” signals to the online services that you visit. Our websites do not respond to “Do Not Track” signals. To find out more about “Do Not Track,” please visit <http://www.allaboutdnt.com>.

Declining to provide information. We need to collect personal information to provide certain services. If you do not provide the information we identify as required or mandatory, we may not be able to provide those services.

Other Sites and Services

The Services may contain links to websites, mobile applications, and other online services operated by third parties. In addition, our content may be integrated into web pages or other online services that are not associated with us. These links and integrations are not an endorsement of, or representation that we are affiliated with, any third party. We do not control websites, mobile applications or online services operated by third parties, and we are not responsible for their actions. We encourage you to read the privacy policies of the other websites, mobile applications and online services you use.

Security

We employ a number of technical, organizational and physical safeguards designed to protect the personal information we collect. However, security risk is inherent in all internet and information technologies and we cannot guarantee the security of your personal information.

International Data Transfer

We are headquartered in the United States and may use service providers that operate in other countries. Your personal information may be transferred to the United States or other locations where privacy laws may not be as protective as those in your state, province, or country.

Children

The Services are not intended for use by anyone under 18 years of age. If you are a parent or guardian of a child from whom you believe we have collected personal information in a manner prohibited by law, please contact us. If we learn that we have collected personal information through the Services from a child without the consent of the child's parent or guardian as required by law, we will comply with applicable legal requirements to delete the information.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to modify this Privacy Policy at any time. If we make material changes to this Privacy Policy, we will notify you by updating the date of this Privacy Policy and posting it on the Services or other appropriate means. Any modifications to this Privacy Policy will be effective upon our posting the modified version (or as otherwise indicated at the time of posting). In all cases, your use of the Services after the effective date of any modified Privacy Policy indicates your acknowledging that the modified Privacy Policy applies to your interactions with the Services and our business.

How to Contact Us

If you have questions about our practices or if you would like to exercise any privacy related right that may be available to you, please contact us at marketing@calyxoinc.com

California Privacy Rights Notice

Except as otherwise provided, this section applies to residents of California, pursuant to the California Consumer Privacy Act (“CCPA”).

This section describes how we collect, use, and share Personal Information (as defined below) of residents of California and the rights these users may have with respect to their Personal Information. Please note that not all rights listed below may be afforded to all users and that if you are not a resident of California, you may not be able to exercise these rights. In addition, we may not be able to process your request if you do not provide us with sufficient detail to allow us to confirm your identity or understand and respond to it.

For purposes of this section, the term “Personal Information” has the meaning given to “personal information” or other similar terms in the CCPA and “Sensitive Personal Information” has the meaning given to “sensitive personal information” or other similar terms in the CCPA, except that in neither case does such term include information exempted from the scope of the CCPA. In some cases, we may provide a different privacy notice to certain categories of residents of California, such as job applicants, in which case that notice will apply instead of this section.

Your privacy rights. The CCPA may provide residents with some or all of the rights listed below. However, these rights are not absolute. Therefore, we may decline your request in certain cases as permitted by law.

- Information. You can request the following information about how we have collected and used your Personal Information during the past 12 months:
 - The categories of Personal Information that we have collected.
 - The categories of sources from which we collected Personal Information.
 - The business or commercial purpose for collecting and/or selling Personal Information.
 - The categories of third parties with which we share Personal Information.
 - The categories of Personal Information that we sold or disclosed for a business purpose.
 - The categories of third parties to whom the Personal Information was sold or disclosed for a business purpose.
- Access. You can request a copy of the Personal Information that we have collected about you.
- Appeal. You can appeal our denial of any request validly submitted.

- Correction. You can ask us to correct inaccurate Personal Information that we have collected about you.
- Deletion. You can ask us to delete the Personal Information that we have collected from you.
- Consumers under 18. We do not have actual knowledge that we sell or share the personal information of consumers under 18 years of age.
- Limit processing of Sensitive Personal Information. We do not collect or process Sensitive Personal Information.
- Nondiscrimination. You are entitled to exercise the rights described above free from discrimination as prohibited by the CCPA.

Right to information, access, correct and deletion. You can request to exercise your information, access, correct and deletion rights by:

- Calling: 877-827-0485
- Emailing: [insert email]

Right to opt-out of the “sharing” of your Personal Information. We do not sell personal information (including Sensitive Personal Information), and we do not “share” or otherwise process personal information (including Sensitive Personal Information) for purposes of cross-context behavioral or targeted advertising, as defined under applicable law. We have not engaged in such activities in the 12 months preceding the date this Privacy Policy was last updated.

You can also broadcast the Global Privacy Control (GPC) to opt-out for each participating browser system that you use. Learn more at the Global Privacy Control website.

Verification of Identity; Authorized agents. We may need to verify your identity in order to process your information/know, access, appeal, correction, or deletion requests and reserve the right to confirm your residency. To verify your identity, we may require government identification, a declaration under penalty of perjury, or other information, where permitted by law.

Under the CCPA, you may enable an authorized agent to make a request on your behalf upon. However, we may need to verify your authorized agent’s identity and authority to act on your behalf. We may require a copy of a valid power of attorney given to your authorized agent pursuant to applicable law. If you have not provided your agent with such a power of attorney, we may ask you to take additional steps permitted by law to verify that your request is authorized, such as by providing your agent with written and signed permission to exercise your California privacy rights on your behalf, the information we request to verify your identity, and confirmation that you have given the authorized agent permission to submit the request.

Personal information that we collect, use and disclose. We have summarized the Personal Information we collect and may disclose to third parties by reference below to both the categories defined in the “Personal information we collect” section of this Policy above and the categories of Personal Information specified in the CCPA (Cal. Civ. Code §1798.140). The information below describes our practices currently and during the 12 months preceding the effective date of this Privacy Policy. Information you voluntarily provide to us, such as in free-form webforms, may contain other categories of personal information not described below.
